APPOINTMENTS

The therapy session will be 45-55-minute session (one appointment hour). Once an appointment hour is scheduled, you will be expected to pay for a late cancellation unless you provide 24 hours advance notice of cancellation [unless we both agree that you were unable to attend due to circumstances beyond your control].* It is important to note that insurance companies do not provide reimbursement for cancelled sessions

You will be responsible for $50 for the first missed appointment and $105 for any subsequent missed appointments. If this is a continuing pattern, your care may be discontinued in our clinic and we would provide you with referrals to other mental health clinics.

If patient is a Medicaid patient by state law we cannot charge for missed appointments. If a Medicaid patient no shows for an appointment they will be eligible to be discharged from therapy services and a referral will be provided to other mental health professionals.

We make every effort to make reminder calls, texts, or email if you give us permission and provide the valid information. However, reminder calls are a courtesy. We are not responsible in the event that you do not receive your reminder call, text, or email for any reason. Not receiving a reminder call regarding an appointment does not absolve your responsibility in terms of our missed appointment / no show policy.

The patient is responsible for contacting the office with any changes in phone numbers, addresses, insurance information, and legal issues pertaining to minor children.

ADDENDUM TO CONSENT FOR COUPLES OR FAMILY OR GROUP THERAPY

When there is more than one person in the room with the healthcare professional there is a "limit of confidentiality." Anyone in the room could choose to speak about the session to outsiders. Although all parties should treat information shared as confidential, it is equally important that all parties involved know that confidentiality is limited.

Parents, by signing below, you are consenting to being quoted or discussed in your children's psychotherapy notes, intake or history.

Further, if any one of the parties requests copies of the chart it will require the signature of all parties that signed the original "informed consent" before any information will be released.

To maintain and protect the therapeutic process, I ask that you sign below. By signing you are also agreeing to not ask for records of these group/couple/family sessions to be released for any legal/litigation purposes.

MINOR CHILD CHECKLIST

DATE: _____

CHILD'S NAME: _____ APPT. DATE: _____

PARENT'S NAME(S): _____

If your child is adopted we will need adoption paperwork to verify custody

ARE YOU AND THE OTHER PARENT MARRIED SEPARATED DIVORCED

(IF MARRIED AND COMING TOGETHER, YOU CAN SKIP THE REST OF THIS CHECKLIST)

If divorced, we will need a copy of the decree at or before the 2nd session

What are the custody arrangements? JOINT CUSTODY PRIMARY CUSTODY

OTHER _____

Who will be attending the appointments? _____

We always encourage both parents to be involved in therapy for a child. Will you notify the other parent? YES NO _____

 Is there litigation pending at this time? YES NO

If yes understand that the therapist is not agreeing to be an expert witness or to testify at any deposition, court proceeding, or in any other way.

If there is joint custody or any type of shared custody, it is our understanding that each parent has the ability to give their consent for medical treatment of a child unless the court has specified in the order that the consent of both parents is required. Each parent can know about all appointments and treatment of the child. If either parent calls our office to inquire about appointments or treatment, we are obligated to release that information. We will always encourage both parents to be involved in the treatment of a child. We will not take sides or be involved in any pending litigation. The therapists are not inclined to abandon the patient by a quick and clinically unwarranted termination of treatment because one of the parents is upset.

CO-PAYMENTS - Our office is not responsible for collecting co-payments from anyone but the person who brings the child to appointments. You are responsible for payment for services rendered to you or your minor child(ren).

CUSTODY AND VISITATION ISSUES – The therapist cannot make any recommendations about custody or visitation. If custody and visitation are a concern, the therapist may speak with you about a referral to another therapist for a formal custody evaluation, a mediator, or guardian ad litem. It is assumed that both parents want to work towards the best interest of their child(ren), which includes maintaining a safe, therapeutic environment with the therapist.

BEHAVIOR/CONDUCT – At times, parents who are involved in divorce or custody disputes have difficulty maintaining an appropriate decorum in the waiting room or therapist office. Out of concern for your child(ren), other patients in our clinic and clinic staff, parents are asked to behave respectfully to one another. If they do not behave in a civil manner they may be required to attend sessions separately or services may be terminated. This also applies to appropriate behavior towards office staff.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION – If information from the child(ren)'s record is requested, any person who has attended a therapy session with the child must sign a release or the information cannot be released.

Pursuant Iowa Code for the best interest of the child receiving counseling treatment, therapy notes will be considered privileged and will not be released due to harm for therapist/client relationship. At any time, you may request a therapist discuss or review your entire chart with you. That request must be made in writing and be approved by the Clinical Director of Grinstead & Associates. A fee will be charged of $150.00.

If you request to meet with the therapist and the child(ren) is not present the child(ren)'s insurance cannot be billed. The parent attending the session can fill out new patient paperwork and their insurance can be billed, or the session can be paid out of pocket for the current session price.

I have read the above paragraphs and understand them. By signing below, I agree to the above.
